MC CARTHY TO HIGHER COURT

GOD GOO APPEARS AND SAVES RAIL.

LADY WILL RECOVER FROM IN-JURIES INFLICTED BY SHIP-PING MASTER.

Portuguese Jehu Assessed Twenty-five Dollars for Careless Driving.
Domestic Troubles Adjusted Out of Court—Seven Sorry Toppers.

William McCarthy, the shipping master, whose record now on file with the peace officers savors of the picturesque and sensational, played a return engagement before Judge Wilcox at police court yesterday morning.
The case against McCarthy, wherein he was charged with mayhem, was reopened, and he was spared the loss of $300 bail, which was forfeited on Friday because of non-appearance in court when his case was called.

McCarthy had spent the night in the inner confines of the city bastille. His wife yet remains an inmate of Queen's hospital, where she was taken after her ear had almost been severed because of coming in contact with Mc-Carthy's teeth. The woman will eventually recover from the injuries resulting from the shipping master's fury.

McCarthy was represented by Attorney G. K. Wilder, who filed an afdavit and motion for reopening for default. Later on, the defendant was called up on the charge of mayhem.

McCarthy waived examination and was committed to the Circuit Court for trial.

August Tavash, a Portuguese hackman, was convicted of headless driving and was assessed a fine of $25 and costs.

The domestic troubles existing in the Meyer household were apparently amicably adjusted out of court, hence when the case of Wm. Meyer was col-led, the charge of assault and battery against Mrs. Meyer was nolle prosecuted.

Sam Kinney paid $6 for his assault upon Annie K. Keali.

Hekeia was granted another twenty-four hours to establish his innocence in regard to several shady transactions, especially where he is accused of dispensing spirituous liquors without a license.

When the victims of strong drink were called forward, seven sorry looking individuals responded to their names. The price paid for Saturday joyousness was $2 and costs each.

Ah In admitted he had dallied with the six-sided dice too long Saturday night. He was fined $30 for gambling.
An uncontrollable appetite for sweets brought dire disaster upon the luckless Ah Leong, who was charged with stealing 25 cents worth of sugar from the larder of the Hawaiian hotel.
The defendant pleaded for a postponement until today. He is charged with larceny in the second degree.

WILL OF R. H. HIND FILED FOR PROBATE

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 15.—Robert Robson Hind's will was filed yesterday for probate. He died at Kona, Hawaii, November 27th, leaving an estate of $500,000 or more in California. His family resides at Kohala, Hawaii, but his legal residence was in San Francisco. He owned a sugar plantation and other property in Hawaii and in British Columbia.

To his wife, Mary Hind, he bequeathed their residence at 2398 Howard street, in this city, the contents of their residence at Kohala, $3000 to be paid to her immediately and $550 a month during her life for the maintenance of herself and their two daughters, Eleanor M. Hind, now living here, and Mrs. Mary McBryde.

The testator said that all of his estate was community property, and that his wife had expressed her satisfaction with the will.

To this son, John Hind, he gave $20,000 in recognition of his devotion to the interests of the family. For his granddaughter, Katie Benton, he left $18,000 in trust. The rest of the estate goes to his four sons, John, Robert, George and James, and his two daughters in equal shares, he recommending that the division be deferred until after the death of their mother. John Hind is to manage the plantation and other interests in Hawaii, and George U. Hind, the other properties of the estate.
